Mobile POS – accepting card payments at the Point of Sale

Product facts	Benefits
Accepting credit card payments at the Point of Sale usually requires merchants to invest in additional hardware devices. With our mPOS, we enable merchants to accept payments directly with their mobile phone.	• Merchants are able to accept card payments at the point of sale • We help merchants to add another sales channel • Tab the potential of a new business area with an easy to use mobile POS application

Functionality

- Can be used with or without a magnetic card or chip reader
- Integrate magnetic card or chip readers from any manufacturer
- Supports credit and debit card payments
- Support's any currencies
- Automated cloud storage of the shoppers' signatures for chip and signature as well as swipe and signature setups
- Sends an electronic receipt to shoppers via email after the transaction was successful

Benefits (continued):

- Complies with highest security standards
- Global availability

Technical features

The CNG mobile system enables anybody to accept credit card payments at the Point of Sale. The application can be customized according to the individual merchant needs.

Feature overview:

- Works with magnetic stripe and chip card reader
- Supports multiple currencies
- Supports multiple payment methods
- Handles connection and input errors
- Complies with PCI requirements
- Signature storage facility